

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Wednesday, Jan.12

2000

Team here to select Mirror Systems proposals

A multi-agency review team is visiting Marshall Wednesday through Friday to review and select proposals for the Advance Mirror Systems Demonstrator. Team members are individuals from the National Reconnaissance Office, NASA Next Generation Space Telescope Program and the Air Force Research Laboratory.

Early out authority date changed.

Applications due Jan. 21. For help, call 544-8115

Introduction to Internet security, 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Jan. 25-27, Bldg. 4200, room G19

Clear writing class next week

The "Write in Plain English" course will be from 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Jan. 18-19 in Bldg. 4200, room G-21. The course focuses on enhancing your ability to produce effective documents. Civil service employees should register via AdminSTAR. For more information, call 544-7527 or 544-7553.

AmEx goes on vacation

The American Express Vacation office at Marshall will be closed Jan. 18-Feb. 2. For vacation travel needs during this period, call American Express Travel at Kennedy Space Center, Fla., at 1-800-348-4204.

MESA meets 11:30 a.m. Jan. 20 Bldg. 4471, room C-105